

Boos Building
101 East Thomas
C. 1898

The Boos Building is one of Hammond's oldest and most distinctive structures. Eve Boos purchased the corner lot in 1897 and the building was completed in 1898. The building became the location of Eve's husband William's barber shop.