

Central Rexall
125 East Thomas
Built – 1904

The building located here was built in 1904 and is known as The Central Rexall building. The Central Rexall drug store began its operation in 1896. The building is no longer used as a drugstore but the signage remains as it is considered a visual landmark.